When it was all black, first there was God
Who created everything from the normal to the odd

Am

Who created everything to live in harmony

Em

And then put two in charge, they were Adam and Eve

B

They were humble, they were smart,

Am

So how did this all start?

And the fruit sits alone in the tree, Shalom.

At first it was all great, everything was nice and clean,
But then a little serpent came and showed up on the scene
It came into the garden, started spreading things around
It asked about the trees that were growing in the ground

It asked if there was such,
A tree you couldn't touch,
And then Eve replied, "We can look, but do not touch"
And the fruit sits alone in the tree, Shalom.

Well now, Adam and Eve, they were curious as can be
They took the fruit and ate, and then they both could see
God sent them both away from the garden that they knew
We were separate from God, but the story isn't through

God said he would send us
A Prince that we could trust
One to bring about peace, And bring God closer to us.
And then Jesus took the throne for you and me, Shalom.
