Ya Gotta Have Salt

Ya gotta have salt, and wanna make some peace
Ya gotta be salt, if the hating’s gonna cease
Ya gotta use salt, get ready for the feast
If we’re gonna live a life in the light of God
If we’re gonna live a life in the light of God

Ya gotta aim high, if you wanna make a change
Ya gotta dream big, so this world can rearrange
Ya gotta be brave, though it may seem kinda strange
If we’re gonna live a life in the light of God (x2)

Ya gotta praise God, for what God’s done for us
Ya gotta thank God, for sending us Jesus
Ya gotta trust God, though it might be perilous
If we’re gonna live a life in the light of God. (x2)

Ya gotta sing loud, so everyone can hear
Ya gotta shout loud, so everyone can hear
Ya gotta live loud; there is no need to fear
If we’re gonna live a life in the light of God. (x2)
